Delbury Hall

Delbury Hall is probably the most beautiful and imposing Georgian mansion in Shropshire and an extremely friendly and relaxed family home.

The house is surrounded by 80 acres of landscaped parkland and faces south across the water meadows towards Ludlow, 8 miles away. Situated in beautiful Corvedale, between Much Wenlock and Ludlow, the Cleve Hills and Wenlock Edge provide a picturesque backdrop.

The gardens are stunning, with ornamental lakes, wonderful herbaceous borders and rose gardens. You and your guests are welcome to wander freely in the grounds of Delbury Hall, where there are wonderful photographic opportunities.

The Coach House has been recently been restored to the highest standards. Traditional materials, combined with clean lines and cutting edge design create an exciting ceremony and reception space with superb facilities. Up to 130 guests can be seated for the wedding breakfast or the civil ceremony.

The Mezzanine Floor has a glass balustrade and is reached via a glass and oak staircase. This area is ideal for civil ceremonies of up to 80 guests, or as a quiet area for guests sit and relax. At one end there are French windows leading to a balcony that has stunning views over an historic carp pool with an amazing 30ft floodlit water feature.

For an additional fee of £150, weddings for up to 60 guests may take place in the magnificent entrance hall of Delbury Hall, probably one of the finest rooms in the house. It has a wonderful staircase leading to an upper gallery and makes a superb entrance for the bride.

Just a note to say thanks you for allowing us to hold our wedding at such a stunning venue. So many of the guests commented on Delbury and our wedding photos look spectacular. The room was lovely and waking up to the views and sunshine was memorable. Thank you again for your role in making our day perfect.

Kerry and I would like to thank you very much for the use of the Coach House and Stables on Saturday. We had an absolutely perfect day. We loved Delbury as soon as we saw it but even in our wildest dreams didn't expect it to be so wonderful. The grounds were beautiful and all the guests were absolutely bowled over with the venue and setting.
